CHICAGO MERCHANT MAKES STATEMENT.

After Spending Thousands of Dollars and Consulting the Most Renowned Physicians, He Was Desperate.

CHICAGO, ILLS.—Mr. J. G. Becker, of 134 Van Buren St., a well-known wholesale dry goods dealer, states as follows:

"I have had catarrh for more than thirty years. Have tried everything on earth and spent thousands of dollars for other medicines and with physicians, without getting any lasting relief, and can say to you that I have found Peruna the only remedy that has cured me permanently."

"Peruna has also cured my wife of catarrh. She always keeps it in the house for an attack of cold, which it invariably cures in a very short time."

Corrections of Delinquent List.

On the delinquent list recently published there appeared the names of J. M. Adkins, in Twin Branch precinct and D. G. Diamond, in Buysville precinct, and I wish to say with reference to these men that this publication was a mistake, as these men had paid their taxes in full and had their receipts for same. There also appeared the names of John R. Thompson, and Mill Thompson, of the Little Blaine precinct. The names that appear on the list had no reference to these men, as they have each paid their taxes, and have their receipts for same; but after they paid these two names still remained on my books with the taxes unpaid and I am informed that there are two other men of exactly the same name. There also appeared on the list the name T. B. Wilson. He paid $2.50 and there remains unpaid on the books tax to the amount of $117.92, and whether there be two men of the same name I don't know, but we were unable to find one man of this name and he paid the amount as stated above, but if one and the same man be by mistake appeared on the books twice.

I gladly make these corrections and stand ready and am more than willing to correct any mistake that has been made, and any one feeling themselves aggrieved will do me a favor by calling at my office so that we may make the proper explanations and show if possible how if any the errors have occurred.

JOHN H. CARTER,
Sheriff.
